21st July 2019

The gospel today reminds us that the Word has become flesh, and He sits among us. He shares his table with us, a sign of welcome and sharing. We are disciples and sit with him and listen.

Lord, there is a Martha and a Mary within each of us, a part of ourselves which is active and busy, another part which sits at your feet and listens trustingly to Your word. We need our active self to accomplish your will, and the listening self to be people of prayer. Amen.
