Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. When it comes to being disciples, Jesus asks us to develop a habit of trust. This is not a blind faith but a willingness to really come to know him and be changed from within. Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples, but like the first disciples we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship.

Lord, I pray that strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit I may radiate the light of your love to those I encounter in my daily life. Help me to have a deeper understanding of the needs of others and give me the courage to witness to the joy of my faith. Amen.

Sea Sunday . . . When seafarers are in foreign ports, they often rely on the strangers who visit them to support them, to take them to the shops, to give them internet access, to take them to a Church for Mass or confession. Often, they don't even speak the local language, making things even harder. Sea Sunday is the day our parishes pray for seafarers and fishers and support Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea) - the Catholic charity that provides that welcome for seafarers in ports in this country and around the world. The chaplains and volunteers of Stella Maris listen to seafarers' stories, help to provide what they need, and answer Jesus' call to give hospitality to the stranger.

There will be a second collection this weekend for Stella Marris.

Lord God watch over seafarers, keep them from danger, befriend them in loneliness and bring them safely home to those they love. We pray for Stella Maris who carries out their work on our behalf, may they continue to reveal, especially through their hospitality, the love of Christ. Amen.

Steer the ship of my life, good Lord, to your quiet harbour, where I can be safe from the storms of sin and conflict. Show me the course I should take. Give me the strength and the courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high, knowing that through enduring hardship and danger, in your name, I shall find comfort and peace. Amen
